

Dublin School of English

Teaching Practice feedback

Stephen Easley-Walsh

Teacher Assessment

Teaching: Integrated skills

Teaching Practice

Date & Time 5/09/14 7 2-3 pm

Assessor Name: Gerard McDonald

Level: A2

	Planning and materials	D/A/NA
1	Select a range of activities and tasks in line with methodology to develop communication	D
2	Create a lesson plan which adequately informs the teacher and allows reconstruction of the lesson	D
3	Develop appropriate aims for the teacher and learning outcomes for a specific set of learners	D
4	Anticipate potential problems which may arise in the lesson and suggest suitable solutions	D
5	Stage lessons to achieve the outcome of the lesson including anticipate suitable timings for the stages of the lesson	D
6	Work with a the lesson plan and digress from it or modify it during the lesson as appropriate	D
7	Select, and adapt appropriate materials as well as devise some materials and present them to a high standard for use in the lesson by a specific group of learners	D
8	Plan lessons which strike an appropriate balance between learner-centred and teacher centred activities	D
	Classroom Management
1	Use pair/group work appropriately	D
2	Give appropriate feedback to learners to encourage and signal correctness or inaccuracy	A
3	Provide clear instructions supported by eg. gesture, facial expression, intonation	D
4	Elicit and check understanding including by the use of different types of questions	D
5	Monitor appropriately for the activity/stage of the lesson	D
6	Use a range of activities and tasks supported by appropriate materials in line with methodology to develop communication	D
7	Demonstrate awareness of techniques to promote learner-centred teaching and learning	A
	Management and Delivery
1	Establish and maintain classroom dynamic and rapport which is conducive to learning including showing sensitivity and respect (and including the use of names and appropriate responses on arrival	D
2	Work in a team in a constructive manner	D
3	Teach the class showing sensitivity to learners' needs, interests, learning styles etc	D
4	Manage the classroom environment appropriately for the lesson/lesson stage	D
5	Use voice, gesture and eye contact appropriately for the lesson stage	D
6	Set an appropriate pace for the lesson with reference to planned timings, adjusting where appropriate	D
7	Use metalanguage appropriate to learners	D
8	Use materials and resources to support the learning process	D
	Language and Language Skills
1	Establish suitable contexts and teach language (specifically grammar) within these (framed with reference to learners' knowledge and sensitivities) with a focus on conveying meaning	D
2	Give learners appropriate models of language using relevant terminology including phonology	D
3	Help learners to practise pronunciation	D
4	Give accurate and well-pitched explanations of language using accurate terminology for explanations	A
5	Recycle language through a range of integrated skills	D
	The Integration of skills
1	Explore a topic or function through a varied range of integrated skills relevant and proportionate to the intended learning outcomes	D
2	Integrate authentic contexts and materials in a way that provides a learning experience close to the learner's world	D
3	Help learners to develop an improve a range of language skills using appropriate techniques for each skills	D
4		