THINGS YOU DID WELL.....	THINGS YOU WOULD DO DIFFERENTLY...
This was me first CLIL Integrated Skills class and I think it went very well – this would be a class I'd deliver again. I feel the students benefited from the class and got something from it. This went as well (or maybe even better than) my last lesson.	I need to take care to remember the problem caused by false friends. One good example came up in this lesson of a false friend.
